

AGH COLLECTION & CURRICULUM CONNECTIONS (K to 12) – Virtual Mini-Tour and Worksheets

- Talking About Art: People and Stories – With a focus on visual literacy, students will look for clues in three paintings to uncover the story the artist is telling. (language – inferencing)
- Art & Math: 2D, 3D, Organic and Geometric Shapes – Using abstract and representational art, students will discover the world of shapes, identifying shared characteristics and techniques.
- Art & Society: Disrupting Gaze in Modern Art – By pairing a virtual tour of the exhibition Early Snow with a performance by Hamilton's (F)NOR collective, senior students will be encouraged to reconsider ideas of representation and the need to add today's context to historical artworks.

STORYTIME (K to 3)

This week's storytime is for all the sand castle makers, mud pie bakers and tall tower creators, join us as we read Iggy Peck Architect by Andrea Beaty, illustrated by David Roberts.

STUDIOS WITH TYLER VAN HOLST (K to 8)

- Tyler Makes: BOX ART - This week, we will be looking at how to build things with boxes! Together we will talk about forms and shapes and how to make ordinary boxes into amazing Sculptures!
- Online workshops: Contemporary Collage – Great for families and older students, go through the process of creating Contemporary Collage using photos, magazines, and other collage materials..

ONLINE ARTIST LED PROJECTS – This week's highlights:Sylvia Nickerson: In Residence (K-8)

In the first of a series of weekly videos, Sylvia will introduce herself and share a short look at her current work, as she prepares to begin her year-long project at the AGH.

The Writer's Process – Documenting your own Journey (Gr. 6 to 12)

Through journal entries (video or written), students will learn to create short films. Filmmaker Vanessa Crosbie Ramsay will lead students on a creative journey of storytelling through video.

AGH FILM CHALLENGE (Gr. 4 to 12)

The AGH Film Festival's annual Youth Film Challenge is accepting short films from aspiring filmmakers of all ages. Making a movie with a phone or Ipad is very easy, and is a productive use of screen time that engages literacy in developing story telling skills. Our artist-educators can help through our Online projects. Discover how your students can get involved!
