Problems are solved

Think of your favourite story. Pick one moment in that story to create a drawing below. What part of the story will you choose? Remember to include some clues to help us know the setting, and what else happens in the story.

Sinking Liner, the first painting we looked at looks a little bit like a comic strip where each moment in the story appears in a single frame with a picture and some words. Create a short story with a beginning, middle and end, and make it into a comic strip with pictures using the frames below.
